

2016 MODEL APEC CONFERENCE

--- Promoting APEC Youth Leadership and Entrepreneurship Side Event of the 6th APEC Education Ministerial Meeting

Wednesday, August 25 – Monday, August 28 Beijing, China

I. PROJECT OVERVIEW

MODEL APEC Conference, established in 2010, is a program that aims at engaging young leaders in the APEC process, to unite, develop and enrich the skills of the next generations, and encourage them to respond to closer regional cooperation of the Asia-Pacific Region. In 2016, the program became an APEC self-funded program under the Human Resources Development Working Group-Education Network.

2016 MODEL APEC Conference will be held in August, 2016 in Beijing, China. It will invite students from APEC member economies to step into the shoes of APEC education ministers and discuss the further cooperation over key themes and subthemes that are in consistency with the 6th APEC Education Ministerial Meeting. A youth initiative paper representing the view of young people will be produced by participants and handed to EDNET/ HRDWG and even to APEC ministerial meetings. Besides, this activity will provide young people the opportunity to hear from internationally recognized speakers, and interact with senior representatives from business, academic and government over the key elements that shape the future development of the Asia-Pacific.

II. OBJECTIVES

- To gather youth from Asia-Pacific region in order to pass on the spirit of regional cooperation.
- To experience the cultural differences and promote cross culture communication in Asia-Pacific region.
- To start an exchange of values and ideas among students for further dialogue and conversation on a higher level.
- To pass on insights from the young generation to policy-making level and give students an opportunity to influence the policy makers.
- To enhance leadership of the young people.
